

CHURCH OF THE SACRED HEART
28 LAURISTON STREET
EDINBURGH EH3 9DJ

Pictured here is the Holyrood Madonna, the earliest recorded gift to the church of the Sacred Heart. Featured below is one of the Stations of the Cross, recently conserved and restored with the aid of a Heritage Lottery Grant.

1859 – 2009 Diary of Events

Tel: 0131 229 9821

E mail :sacredheart@lauriston.org.uk

Parish Website: www.lauriston.org.uk/sacredheart

Exhibition

THE JESUITS, SCOTLAND AND THE SACRED HEART

31 JULY–30 SEPTEMBER 2009

An exhibition illustrating the history of the Sacred Heart Parish, together with the story of the Jesuits in Scotland from their first mission in 1541 until the present day will be on display in the vestibule of the Church.

Mounted on display screens in the vestibule and former baptistry chapel this exhibition will be on view during the months of August and September to coincide with the Edinburgh International Festival and 'Open Doors Day'.

2010

THURSDAY 25TH MARCH
St Aloysius School Choir singing
Mozart's Requiem

THURSDAY 22ND APRIL
Edinburgh University
Renaissance Singers

FRIDAY 21ST MAY
Dinner in Roxburgh Hotel
Charlotte Square

SATURDAY 26TH JUNE
Visit to Glasgow
(in the steps of St John Ogilvie)

SATURDAY 31ST JULY
Closing Mass

150 YEARS AS A PARISH 1859–2009

